

SNARL 2016 Lecture Series

Sierra Nevada Aquatic Research Lab

Natural Reserve System
University of California
Santa Barbara

- April 19 CANCELLED
- April 26 El Nino, Bounty or Bust
Frank Gehrke, Chief of the California Cooperative Snow Surveys,
State Department of Water Resources
- May 3 Oceans to Mountains, What I've Done and How I Got Here!
Dr. Carol Blanchette, (New) Director, Valentine Eastern Sierra Reserve,
University of California, Santa Barbara
- May 10 Understanding Earthquake and Volcanic Hazards in Mono County
Cynthia Pridmore, Engineering Geologist, Seismic Hazards & Public Outreach,
California Geological Survey and Dr. Margaret Mangan, Scientist-in-Charge,
California Volcanic Observatory, United States Geological Survey
- May 17 Personal Drones! How They Work and Why Their Use is Up in the Air
Paul Page, Volunteer, Valentine Eastern Sierra Reserve
- May 24 A Century of Science in Yosemite National Park
Dr. Jan Van Wagendonk, Research Scientist Emeritus, Yosemite National Park
- May 31 "Talking Stone: Rock Art of the Cosos" Film and Discussion
Dr. Alan Garfinkel, Principal Archaeologist, UltraSystems Environmental, Inc.
Founder and Director, California Rock Art Foundation

7:00 PM Tuesday evenings at the Page Center at SNARL

1016 Mount Morrison Rd.

Admission is free and the public is invited. Not suited for young children.

Lectures last approximately one hour. Please no dogs at SNARL.

For more information contact Annie Barrett, anne.barrett@ucsb.edu; 805-893-5655 or Kim Rose, krose@ucsb.edu; 805-893-5654